2. Come, oh, my love, and fare you well,
come, oh, my love, and fare you well,
you slighted me, but I wish you well.

3. The prison doors roll open wide,
the prison doors roll open wide,
upon my coffin, they made me ride.

4. Come, oh, my love, and fare you well,
come, oh, my love, and fare you well,
you slighted me, but I wish you well.

5. The rope was brought and the bow was swung,
the rope was brought and the bow was swung,
an innocent man you all have hung.

6. Come, oh, my love, and see me die,
come, oh, my love, and see me die,
lift your innocent face, see me dance in the sky.
